La Taverna in Castellgali is quickly becoming a beloved culinary hotspot, and for good reason. The atmosphere is warm and inviting, complemented by friendly staff who elevate the dining experience. Customers rave about the exquisite dishes made with fresh ingredients. Alba Ondo highlights the restaurant's impeccable arroces, especially the meat and mushroom variety, stating it was "de muerte."

Another diner, MANOLI, praises the delectable jamón ibérico and the grilling finesse of the lagarto and butifarra, all enjoyed in a cozy setting, albeit without terrace views. Meanwhile, Peter Martin enthusiastically recommends the black rice served during lunch, while Helena C lauds the restaurant for offering breathtaking views of Montserrat alongside mouthwatering flavors.

In summary, La Taverna is a delightful fusion of ambiance, quality, and taste that guarantees a memorable dining experience. Do not miss the chance to indulge in their desserts, which come highly recommended.
