Spago Cafe, located in the heart of Milan, is a culinary gem that captures the essence of Italian cuisine. Customers rave about the restaurant's inviting atmosphere and exceptional service. Many describe it as the perfect spot for a lunch break with colleagues, highlighting the generous and flavorful dishes at reasonable prices.

- Lasagna: Patrons can't stop praising the unique twist of pesto in their lasagna, claiming it to be the best they've ever had.
- Croissants: One reviewer declared the croissants to be the finest in Italy—light, buttery, and freshly baked, paired perfectly with their excellent coffee.
- Service: The staff is noted for their kindness and efficiency, with assistance in navigating the menu, particularly for non-Italian speakers.

With its compelling blend of local charm, delightful dishes, and attentive service, Spago Cafe stands out as a must-visit for anyone in Milan.
